

A VERY SPECIAL THANK YOU TO:

The Spring Arbor Free Methodist Church and staff for their ongoing encouragement and warm welcome by providing their facilities and support for the conference for the past 26 years!

The Free Methodist Foundation and staff for their long-standing support provided to CAHO and the other organizations represented this weekend. You are truly making a difference in the world.

The faithful members of the CAHO team working diligently behind the scenes year after year to make this conference possible: Shirley and Steve Larson and their assistants, Sharon Rupert and her team of conference volunteers, and Sarah Granger, our webmaster and communications expert!

The Central Africa Healthcare Organization (CAHO) is an independent 501(c)3, ECFA-accredited organization that works to support the medical work at Kibogora Hospital, Rwanda; Nundu Deaconess Hospital, Democratic Republic of Congo; Kibuye Hope Hospital, Burundi; and Claire Heureuse Hospital, Haiti. Support includes fundraising for designated projects, scholarship programs for national hospital staff training, technical assistance, and promoting both short and extended-term expatriate service at these hospitals. CAHO also endeavors to facilitate cooperation between other similar support groups, believing that far more can be accomplished through partnership than alone. CAHO is staffed entirely by volunteers, and funding is provided by many individual donors who wish to invest in the future of the hospitals and their communities. Additional details and contact information is available at www.gocaho.org.

Rev. Stan Key will help guide us on our journey through God's Word. Stan speaks frequently in churches, conferences, and retreats in the U.S. and abroad. Recently he has served as the Bible teacher for the Healthcare Missions Summit and the Missio Nexus leaders' retreat, and next week he will be a plenary speaker at the 2019 National Convention of the Christian Medical and Dental Associations. We are grateful to have him share both his experience in ministry and passion for following Jesus with us again this year.

Stan's education includes an M.Div. degree from Asbury Theological Seminary and a Th.M. degree in Missions from Trinity Evangelical Divinity School. He has completed additional graduate work at the Faculté Libre de Théologie Évangélique in Vaux-sur-Seine, France.

After serving churches in Virginia, Kentucky, and Illinois, Stan and his family served for ten years as church-planting missionaries in the suburbs of Paris, France with One Mission Society. From 1994–2012, Stan was the senior pastor of Loudonville Community Church in Albany, NY. Stan joined the staff of the Francis Asbury Society in 2013 and was named president a year later. He serves as editor of The High Calling newsletter and authored The Last Word (Warner Press, 2015), a study on the book of Revelation, Marriage Matters (Francis Asbury Press, 2017), and Jeremiah: Fire in His Bones (Warner Press, 2017). Stan is a member of the boards of One Mission Society and Sammy Tippit Ministries and has also served as the spiritual dean for the Pan-African Academy of Christian Surgeons (PAACS).

Raised in Georgia, the son of a Methodist preacher, Stan came into a personal relationship with Jesus Christ while he was a student at Asbury College. It was there he met Katy, to whom he has been married since 1977. They have three children and seven grandchildren.
